PRESS RELEASE

South County Justice Center to Re-Open for Business

The Tulare County Superior Court announced today that after a thorough cleaning and sanitizing of the facility, the South County Justice Center in Porterville will re-open for business on Tuesday, June 30, 2020. The courthouse closed for cleaning on June 29th after an employee tested positive for COVID-19.

The court has worked closely with the Tulare County Department of Health and Human Services to fully assess the situation and received the necessary approval to re-open. Individuals with hearing dates scheduled on June 29th, will be notified of a new hearing date.

For further information, please visit the court's website at www.tularesupercourt.ca.gov or call the South County Justice Center at 559-782-3700.
