

1 4. With the concurrence of the Presiding Judge and the consent of all parties to the
2 case, the Court may transfer pending civil cases to a superior court in any county, on June 19,
3 2019 (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(2)(A));

4 5. Any judge of the Court may extend by not more than two days the duration of any
5 temporary restraining order that would otherwise expire on June 19, 2019, because the 6 emergency condition described in the Order prevented the Court from conducting proceedings to 7 determine whether a permanent order should be entered (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(7));

8 6. In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire on June 19, 2019,
9 any judge of the Court may extend the time period provided in section 859b of the Penal Code
10 for the holding of a preliminary examination from 10 court days to not more than 12 court days
11 (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(9)); and

12 7. In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire on June 19, 2019,
13 any judge of the Court may extend the time period provided in section 1382 of the Penal Code
14 for the holding of a criminal trial by not more than 10 days (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(10)).

THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

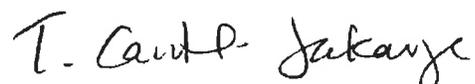

Because of a bomb threat at the courthouse located at 300 East Olive, Porterville, California, which has resulted in the evacuation and closure of the courthouse, it has been determined that the conditions described in section 68115 of the Government Code are met with regard to the Superior Court of California, County of Tulare. Upon the request of Presiding Judge Brett R. Alldredge, it is ordered that the Superior Court of Tulare County is authorized to do the following:

- Hold sessions anywhere in the county, including in correctional and juvenile detention facilities, on June 19, 2019 (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(1));
- Transfer civil cases pending trial to a superior court in any county, with the consent of all parties to the case, on June 19, 2019 (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(2)(A));
- Declare that June 19, 2019, be deemed a holiday for purposes of computing the time for filing papers with the court under Code of Civil Procedure sections 12 and 12a (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(4));
- Declare that June 19, 2019, be deemed a holiday for purposes of computing time under Penal Code section 825 and Welfare and Institutions Code section 632 (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(5));
- Extend by not more than two days the duration of any temporary restraining order that would otherwise expire on June 19, 2019 because the emergency condition described herein prevented the court from conducting proceedings to determine whether a permanent order should be entered (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(7));
- Extend the time period provided in section 859b of the Penal Code for the holding of a preliminary examination from 10 court days to not more than 12 court days, applicable only to cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire on June 19, 2019 (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(9));
- Extend the time period provided in section 1382 of the Penal Code for the holding of a criminal trial by not more than 10 days, applicable only to cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire on June 19, 2019 (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(10)).

This order applies to proceedings that otherwise would have taken place at the courthouse located at 300 East Olive in Porterville, California.
